Adam's Song (Life Is Good) ©2002 William C. Kelly

I hear drums, on the wind;
He's playing again, that's my friend Marking time, for swaying trees, the howling wind and the gentle breeze

God called him home, his choices gone, he had to go
And life is good in His plan
And the truth be known, I miss the man

Instrumental:

Life is short, is so cliché, but when you pass you're gone to stay Yet still, you're here in stories told, of the good old days (and) in songs we play

When God calls me home,
I hope you'll know, I'll miss you so But life is good in His plan
And I've got friends in the Promised Land…
