Intro:

Bangor Molly at sunset
She's pretty, as pretty gets Carefree hope in her face
Peace and kindness, no regrets

As she touched my neck
And together we danced

After dark, hanging out at JP's
After dark, and we were all so carefree
After dark, the nights are but a memory
But the memory makes me smile…

Long dark curls smiling eyes
Blue as the cloudless, summer sky
Life was easy, all in fun
No need to worry or wonder why

As she touched my arm
And together we danced

After dark, and we were all so carefree
After dark, the nights are but a memory
But the memory makes me smile…
Bridge:

Euphoric recall can make the past look so kind
Faced with lonesome, it's no wonder love is blind
In remembering, a little kindness has no fee
As for lost loves, we're not lost, we're just set free…
