Intro:

Her hair flows long like a banner in the breeze,
It's a definite tease, definitely
She walks to the sound of a different drum,
The drum she's hearing in her own parade

She's gotta be, one of the beautiful people 2x

She's gotta smile makes the sun seem cool
And behind those eyes, she's no fool
If you had connections like her "old man",
Maybe she'd give you a chance

A chance to be, one of the beautiful people 2x

Bridge:
She's got diamonds in her eyes…
She's got fire in her heart…
She won't compromise…
When it comes to love, no…

Instrumental…

She’s got style she’s so unique
She works down the street at a hip boutique
Like a “Grand Orange-Head Shop”, number-one hip stop
Only in the trendy towns

Where she is that’s where it’s at
Hanging in the park she’s one cool cat
And if you stay long she’ll get to you
And you could be, beautiful too…

You could be, one of the beautiful people 4x
