It’s A Dog’s Life by Willy Kelly

It’s a dog’s life, that’s what they say
It’s a dog’s life, hang around all day
A dog’s life, they say it’s true
It’s a dog’s life, with nothing to do…

I saw a man on the porch down front of the store
He says dogs ain’t nothing but a big eye sore
It was a dog that bit his brother Gerrard
And yesterday he chased one out of the yard

It’s a dog’s life, that’s what they say
It’s a dog’s life, hang around all day
A dog’s life, they say it’s true
It’s a dog’s life, with nothing to do…

I knew a dog named Mutt and a mutt named Fred
With a little tiny tail and a great big head
He went walking down the road with a cat named Fran
Chased back home by a goose named Stan…

That goose named Stan he was king of the yard
If he could catch old Fred he’s gonna pinch him hard
Gonna stomp his tiny tail with no chit-chat
Cause he don’t like dogs and he don’t like cats!

It’s a dog’s life, that’s what they say
It’s a dog’s life, hang around all day
A dog’s life, they say it’s true
It’s a dog’s life, with nothing to do…

Well Mutt was fine as most dogs go
And Fran was decent cat, don't you know
It was that goose named Stan he had it wrong
He was quick to judge and too head strong…

Now a dog's just a dog and a cat's just a cat
And they ain't to be treated like an old doormat
If Stan had just waved them on their way
You know he might have even made a few friends that day…

It's a dog's life, that's what they say
It's a dog's life, hang around all day
A dog's life, they say it's true
It's a dog's life, with nothing to do…

Yeah, It's a dog's life, that's what they say
It's a dog's life, hang around all day
A dog's life, they say it's true
It's a dog's life, with nothing to do…

Treat this old dog nice, he'll be nice to you…

© 2017 by Willy Kelly