Three Dragons by Willy Kelly

Refrain:
Three Dragons, each of them strong,
Seems they only fight, they refuse to get along
Three Dragons, follow me to bed at night,
One of them is praying while the other 2 just fight
How am I 'spose to feel, where am I gonna go?
If God would only tell me, then I'd know, then I'd know…

I should go for a walk around this town,
Shake off the dust see who's out hanging 'round
Reach for my coat and what do I hear

No, no, no, no… ("A thought is creeping up on me")
No, no, no… ("A feeling is creeping up on me")
Maybe I'll just stay home….

Refrain:

I'm up when she smiles, then I'm down when she frowns
'Think I'm getting by, then I'm sure I'm losing ground
It's time to relax, maybe go see a show…

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah,… ("A thought is creeping up on me")
Yeah, yeah, yeah ("A feeling is creeping up on me")
It's time to lighten up and let go…

The dragon's just a whisper, I can wrap my heart in blankets,
made of love & made of kindness & a will to feel alright

The dragon's just a whisper, I can build upon my temple, show my faith in the Word & have a will to do what's right

Life is all the colors & designs that we paint upon the canvas that we're given at the dawning of the day…

I Love the Peace & Quiet at the dawning of the day…
