Reinvent the Wheel by Willy Kelly

I saw them in the shadows, crouched against the door
in the alley I'd been sleeping in the night before
One guy had the cash
the other had the high,
and I began to have some doubts
about this life of mine…

I just moved along because
I knew them both too well,
I knew the guy that had the stash,
I'd seen the guy had the cash
Talking right and wrong,
I don't always get it right,
for now I'll go another hour,
I might get through the night...

People crying,... people dying...,
people saying,...
"That's just the way it is..."
If the wheels, you been riding,
they ain't working,...
It's time to reinvent the wheel...

It started out so innocent, not that long ago
looking for answers to some things he didn't know
One guy told the story, like a fairy tale
It didn't sound so dangerous, didn't sound so strange...

You just take a hit on this and chill out a while
You knew he had an answer by the cunning in his smile
They found the kid laid out where the caller said he'd be
Now he wears a cunning smile, for eternity

People crying,... people dying...,
people saying,...
"That's just the way it is..."
If the wheels, you been riding,
they ain't working,...
It's time to reinvent the wheel...

We make our way...
We make our way...
We live the life we lead…

Hey'd, you hear about Nicky, he said he's going straight
He got tired of running from the things he couldn't change
'Said he's gonna finish school, gonna change his fate
I almost start to wonder if that could work for me...

People crying,... people dying...,
people saying,...
"That's just the way it is..."
If the wheels, you been riding,
they ain't working,...
It’s time to reinvent the wheel...

Time to reinvent the wheel...
Time to reinvent the wheel...
Time...

From the CD "Another Day" ©2002