Voodoo On You by Willy Kelly

Verse 1:

You know Frenchy Lou he had that store-bought bride
He loved her oh so much, A love so deep and wide
It covered all his day, He laid awake at night
Just dreaming all the ways, To please his one delight
She was his one delight, Yet still his grassy knoll
Until he saw the truth, He'd lost his heart and soul…

Refrain 1:

She put the voodoo on him, She knocked his mojo down
With like a thousand cuts, She put him underground
She put the voodoo on him, She cast a wicked spell
She put the voodoo on him, 'Til he went running for his life…

Verse 2:

You know that voodoo Chile, It weren't her first go round
She'd met a hoodoo man, When she first hit town
He was her magic man, He laid her feelings bare
He was a rolling stone, But she just didn't care
Til her rolled over her, And when she "came to"
She heard his tell-tale heart, And that's how she knew…

Refrain 2:

He put the voodoo on her, He knocked her mojo down
With like a thousand cuts, He put her underground
He put the voodoo on her, He cast a wicked spell
He put the voodoo on her, 'Til she went running for her life…

Verse 3:

Now if you meet someone, They start your heart on fire
You better watch for signs, And implications dire
Cause a fire that warms you, It can burn you too
And that juju charm, Leaves some payment due
You can rue the day, You can moan and cry
And that truth will hurt, When you just can't deny

Refrain 3:

They put the voodoo on you, They knocked your mojo down
With like a thousand cuts, They put you underground
They put the voodoo on you, They cast a wicked spell
They put the voodoo on you, And you'll be running for your life…
